Foreword

As we take you through the year,
Fall, Winter, Springtime, too--
May your memories so dear
Come alive once more for you.

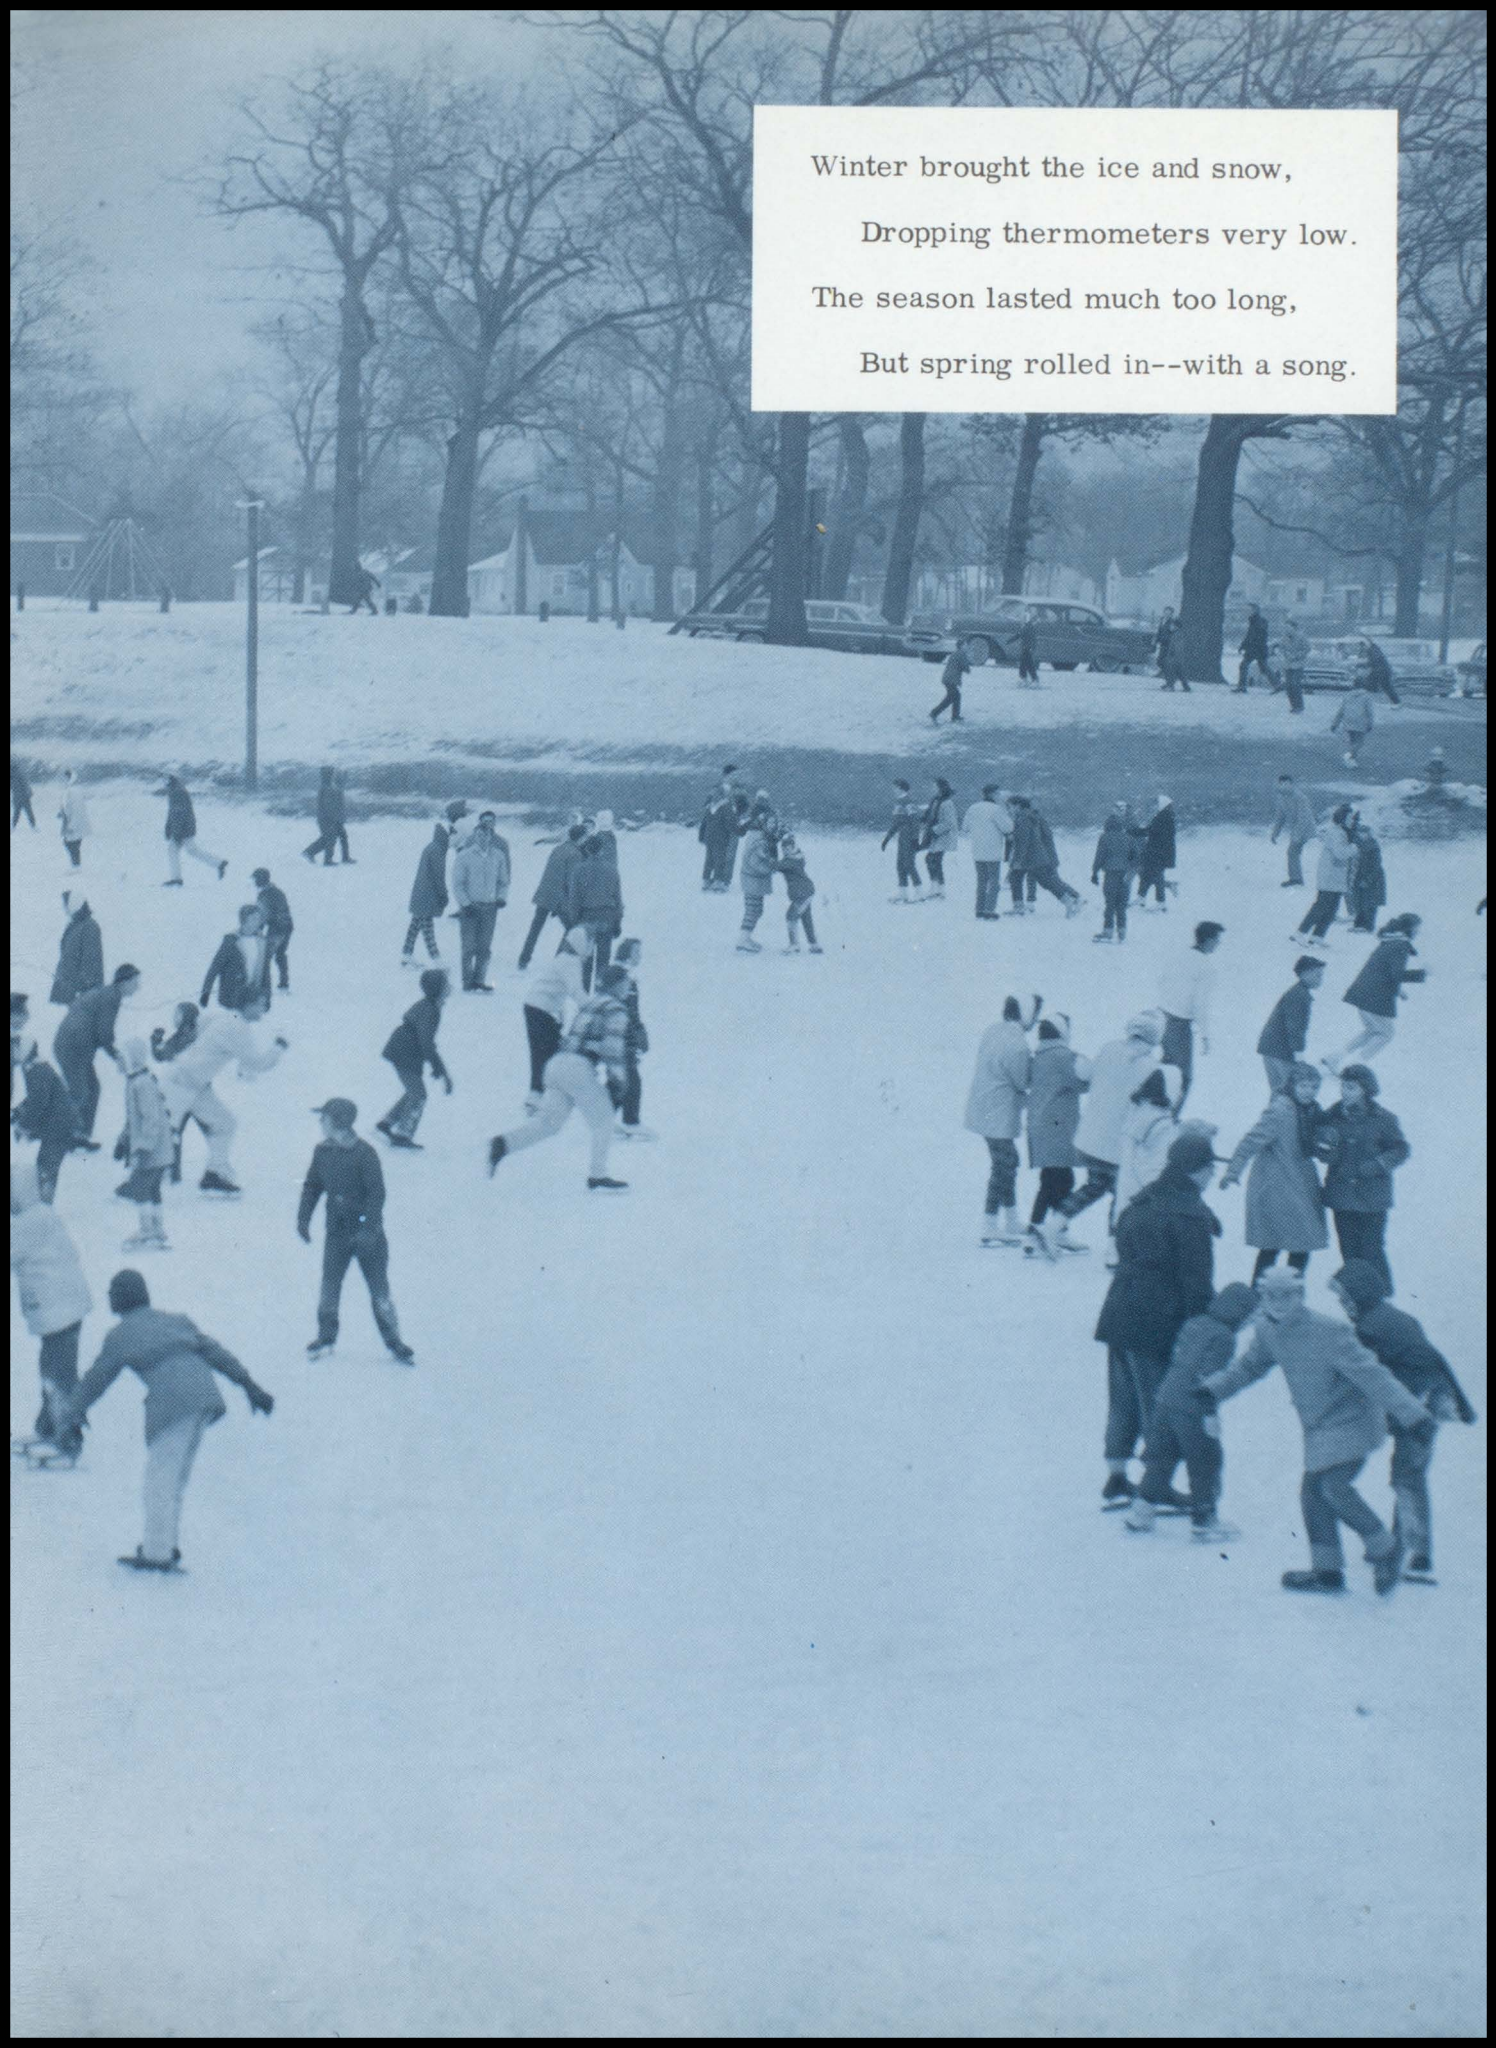

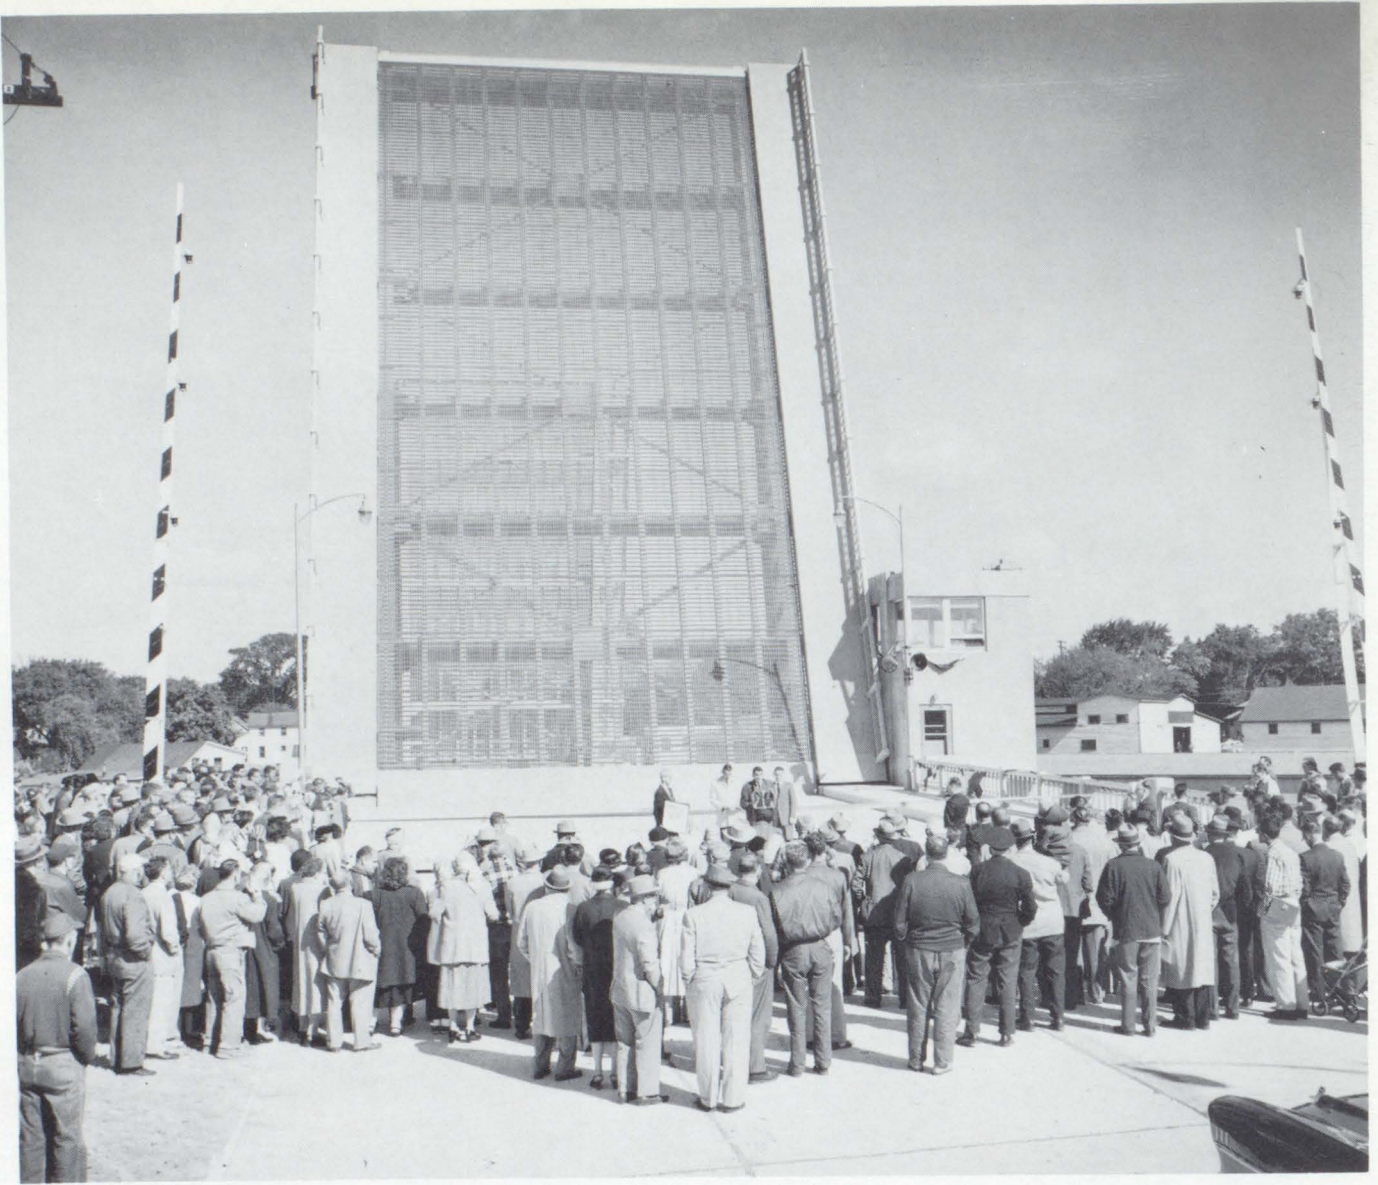

Winter brought the ice and snow,

Dropping thermometers very low.

The season lasted much too long,

But spring rolled in--with a song.

Port Huron's new Tenth Street bridge is one of the finest of its type in the state. It adds much to the beauty and convenience of our city.

OUR THANKS

For their cooperation and helpful assistance in achieving our goals and meeting our deadlines, the Yearbook Staff of 1959 would like to give special recognition to the faculty, the Administration, the Student Body, and the business and professional men of Port Huron. Others whose help we would like to acknowledge are: Mr. Tomlinson, Miss Wiese, Mrs. Wellman, Mrs. Forbes, Mr. Cecil "Brick" Fowler, Mr. Frank Fulkerson, Miss MacLaren, and Mrs. Rantanen's typing classes.

We, The Students . . .

. . . of Port Huron High School, do ordain and dedicate this yearbook of 1959 to Miss Marjorie Muhlitner.

Miss Muhlitner has been a faithful, enthusiastic social studies teacher and the Student Council advisor for the past nineteen years.

Students who have come in contact with her, either in classes or as Student Council representatives, respect and admire her and consider her as a personal friend.

The fact that she has been an active member in the Port Huron Education Association and is now serving her second year as a member of the Board of Directors of the Michigan Education Association attest to her contribution in the field of education.

For Our Schools They Have Concern

Howard D. Crull, Superintendent of Schools

The Port Huron Public Schools are rightfully proud of having an educational leader such as Howard D. Crull in the office of Superintendent of Schools. His energetic efforts in promoting an educational program have resulted in an outstanding school system for our city.

By Their Rules We Live and Learn

The Board of Education, elected by the qualified school electors of the School District, has spent countless hours during the current school year in discussing school improvements. Foremost in the minds of the Board members has been the improvement of the school curriculum. Each member of the Board is intensely interested in the educational welfare of each pupil enrolled in our schools.

The revision of the curriculum to give more opportunities for the academically talented student has been one of the major accomplishments. Although all has not been done that will eventually be accomplished, a good beginning has been made in this important area of organization.

The program of Special education, applying to the entire school system, has been expanded during the year. Growth in school population posed a problem of more school facilities.

Members of the Board of Education were proud of the progress made in the Port Huron Public Schools and intend to study every possible method of continued improvements.

Port Huron High School Says Aloud

For the past 18 years we have been fortunate in having an outstanding educator in the office of principal. Mr. Tomlinson has always devoted his time and energy toward improving every phase of our school life.

His deep interest in our welfare, his many accomplishments for our school, and the vigor with which he goes about his work have entrenched him in the heart of every PHHS student.

Morton J. Tomlinson

We Have Principals Of Whom We're Proud

Miss Wiese, the industrious assistant principal of Port Huron High School, has an extremely important job in the administration of the school programming. Personnel records, attendance records, and the testing program are all among her numerous duties.

The students are grateful for her conscientious assistance in solving their social and academic problems.

Florence C. Wiese

Colen Sommerville

Mr. Sommerville, the Dean of Boys, assumes the responsibility of coping with various disciplinary measures and student problems. He is responsible for the calendar of events which is so very important in the student's high school life.

The students hold sincere respect for the undivided attention which he gives in the planning of the school activities.

The Counselor Is A Personal Friend

Ellen Kean

Miss Kean is always ready to work with the girl students in solving their problems and arranging their programs. The girls know that they can always go to her with their questions.

The girls can rely on Miss Moore to assist them in planning their schedules. She willingly meets with them to talk over any personal matters.

Frances Moore

Upon Whom A Student Can Depend

Ernest Gerke

Mr. Gerke works patiently with students in deciding which classes will be most valuable to them. He is an understanding listener to whom the boys can go with their problems.

Mr. Feick is continually aiding the boys in making decisions and setting a schedule that will help them in their future vocations. The boys appreciate a true friend like Mr. Feick with whom they can talk over any problems.

Gaylord Feick

Teachers and Students Work Hand in Hand,

Teachers attend regular faculty meetings during the year to handle various school affairs and to discuss school policies and procedures.

"Divided We Fall, United We Stand."

Student Council members promote projects to benefit the school and community.

School Life

Time Is Cut Short By The Bell, Still Leaving Lots of News to Tell

"Paper, please" is the demand as students come to the bookstore manned by *Suellen Schneider.

David Clark stopped for a few minutes before the bell to tell Charles Schriener all about that hard Physics assignment.

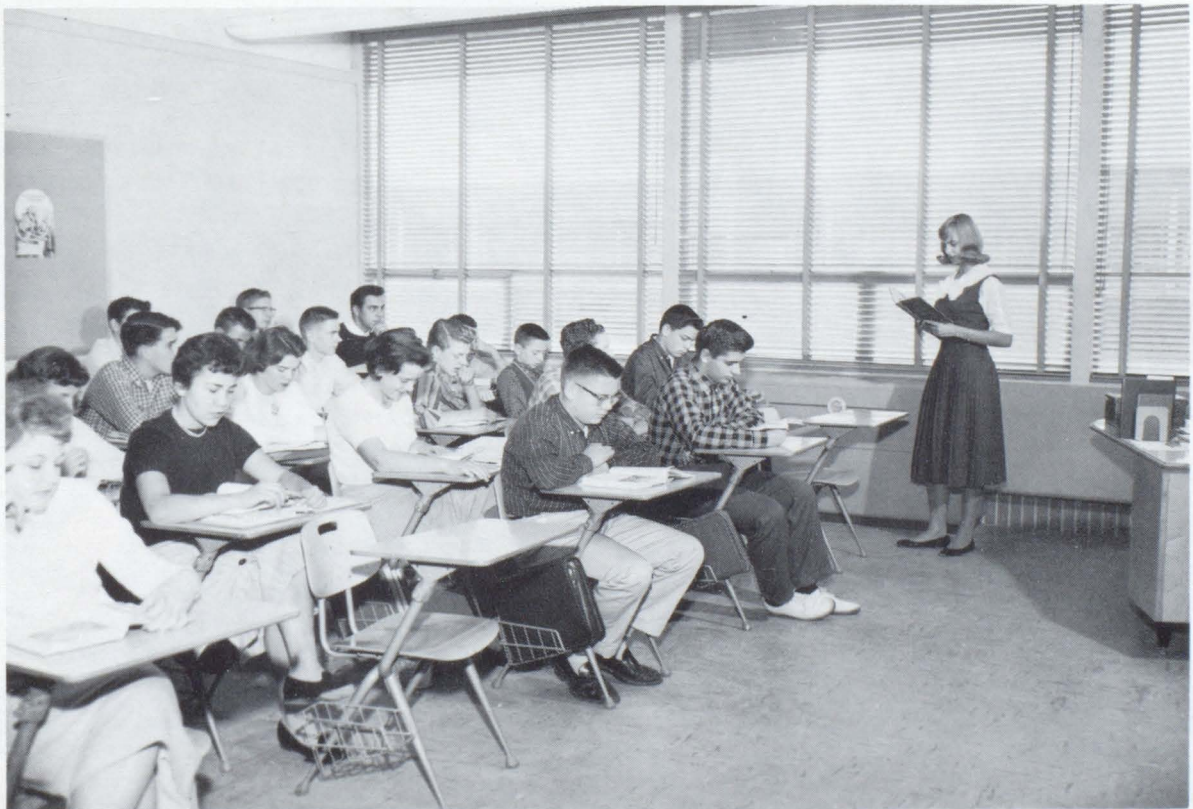

A Foreign Language Can Be Fun. Just Ask A Student Who Has One.

All of the students are participating in Mr. Curti's first year Spanish class.

Miss Winbom's second year French class tries to "absorb" some grammar explained to them by Carol Aitken.

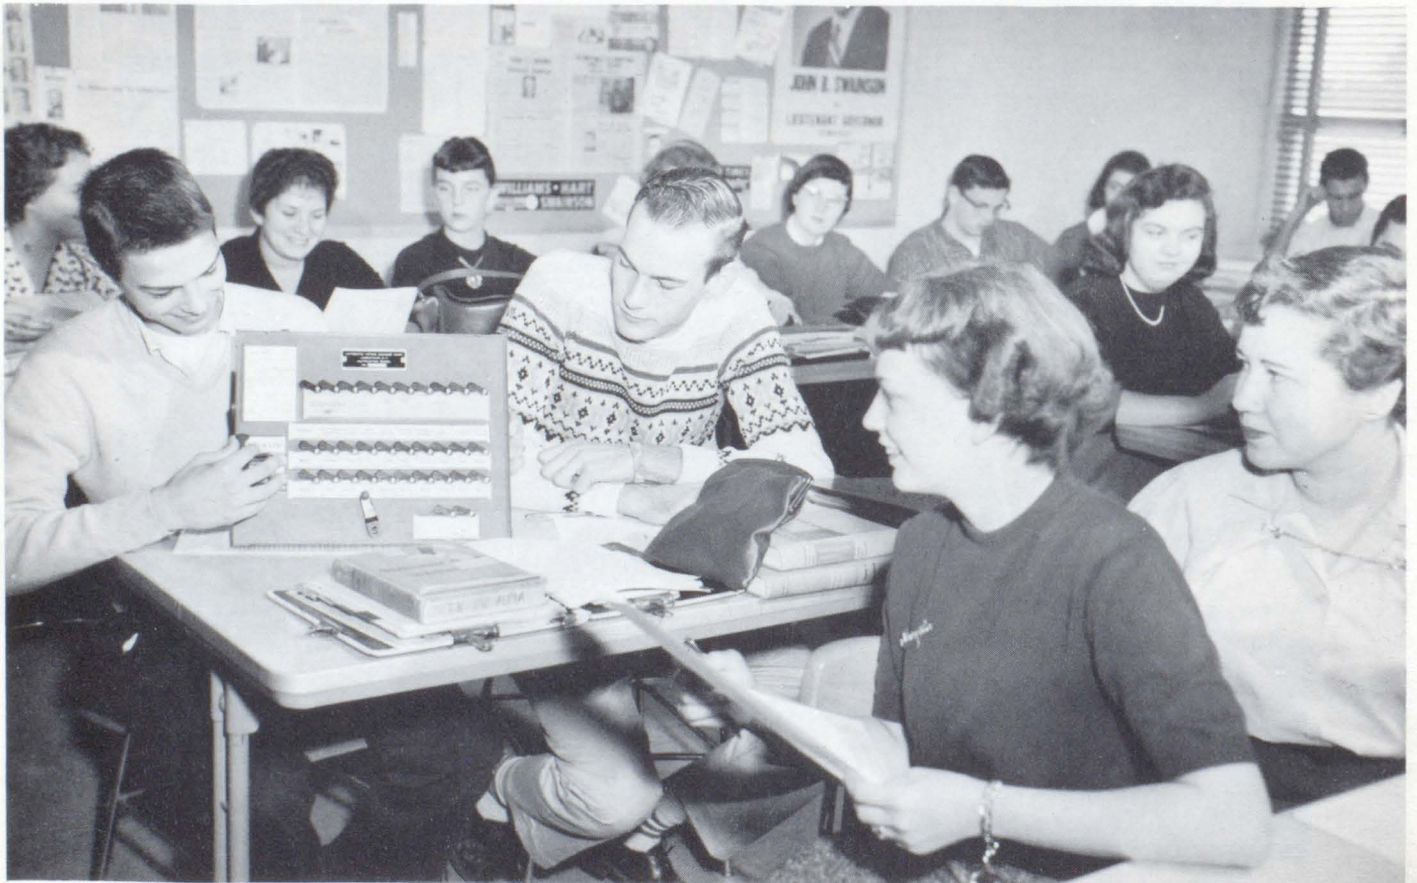

Linda Heering translates the daily Latin lesson.

Past and Present--Future, too,

Toni VanOoteghem and Harlan Blomquist collect mock election ballots in Miss Warren's sociology class.

Is Max Warsinski telling Miss Muhlitner's government class to vote a straight ticket for the Republicans or the Democrats, as he explains a voting machine to them?

Is What We Study the Whole Year Through.

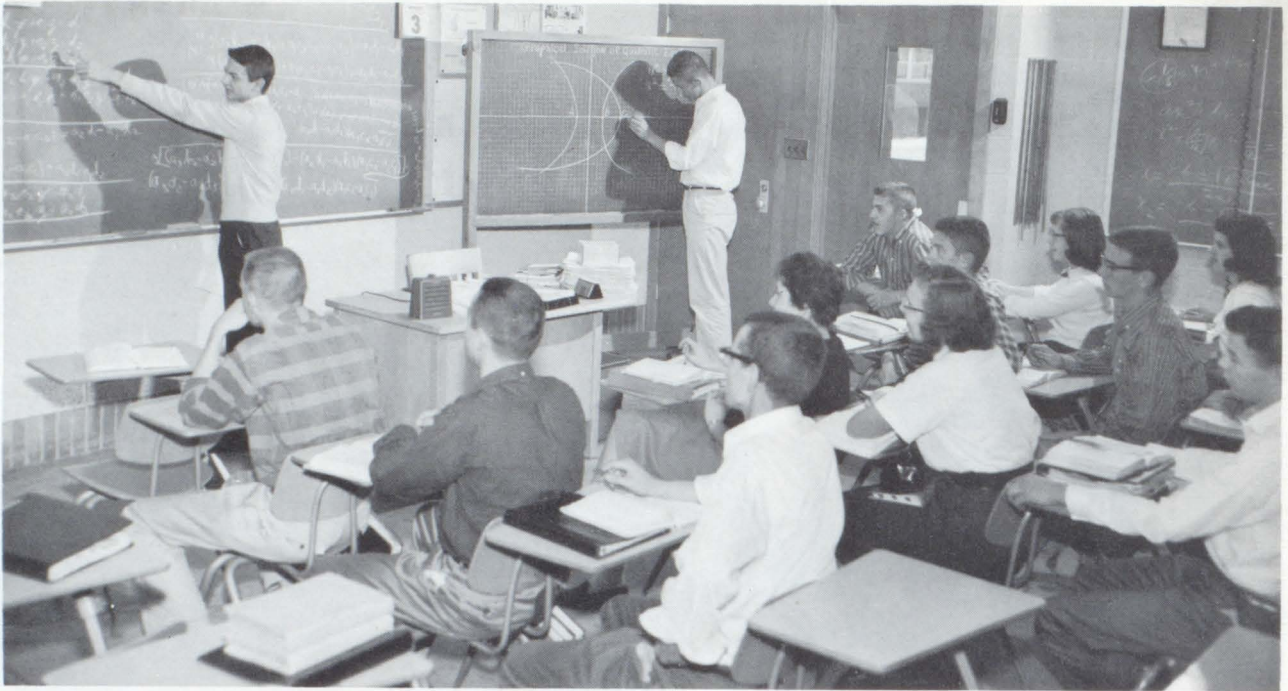

Iowa, the topic of discussion, was pointed out by Gary LaLonde to Miss Rush's American History class.

"Around the World in 60 Minutes" with Miss Eichhorn's World History class.

X Plus Y Equals 3;

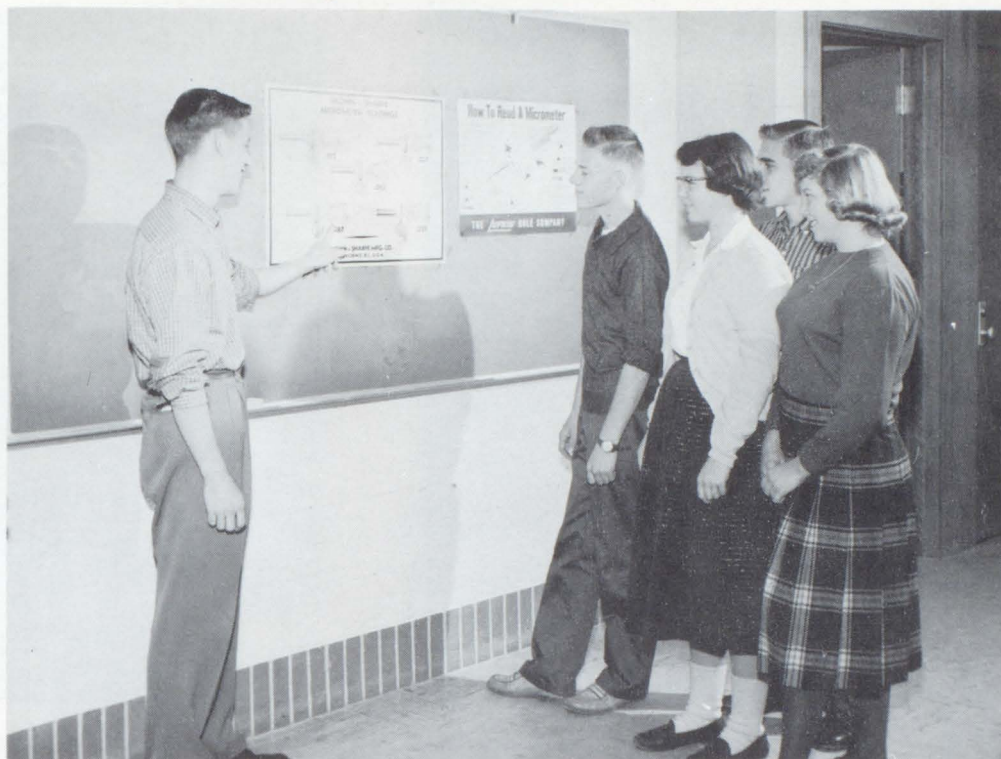

With all eyes on Max Warsinski, nobody seems to be noticing the good job Frank Shepard is doing on that problem in Miss Meehan's advanced algebra class.

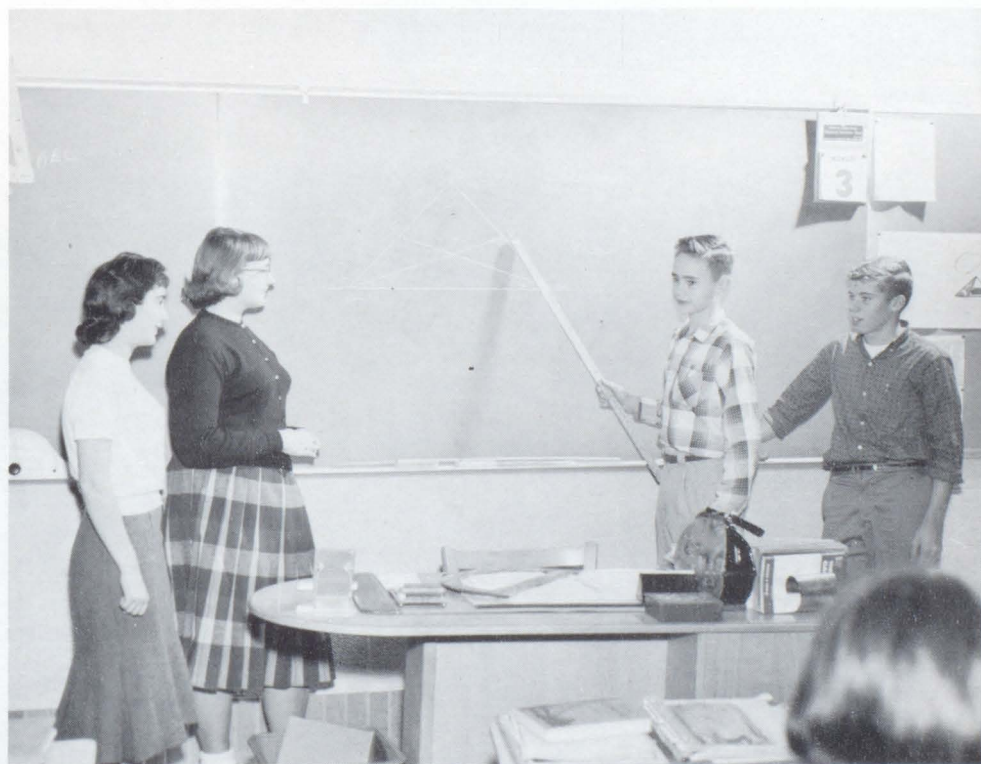

Four of Mr. Case's first year algebra students listen attentively as Raymond Phillips explains a problem.

Math Scholars We Hope To Be.

These charts may look complicated, but Mr. Aurand's consumers math class understands them.

"Therefore, AD equals BE," states one of Miss Neil's geometry students.

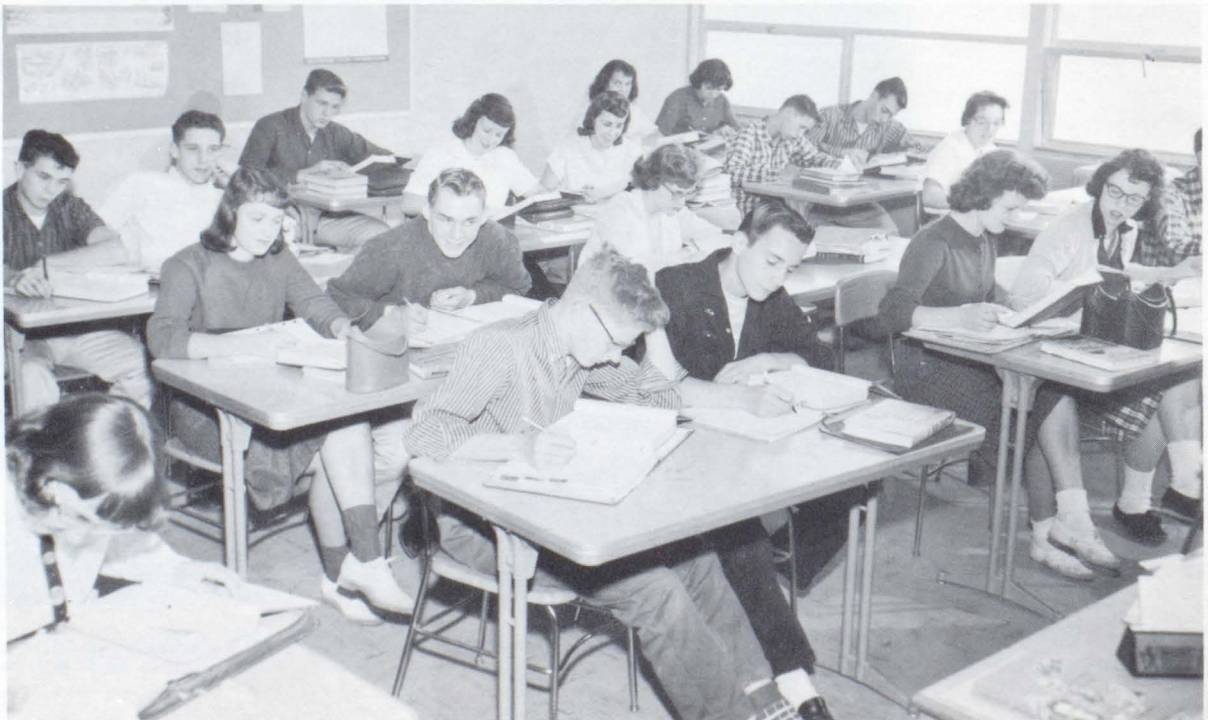

As Our Education Grows,

With a confident attitude, Edward Vigrass shows how Mr. Dean's speech class can be a combination of fun and learning.

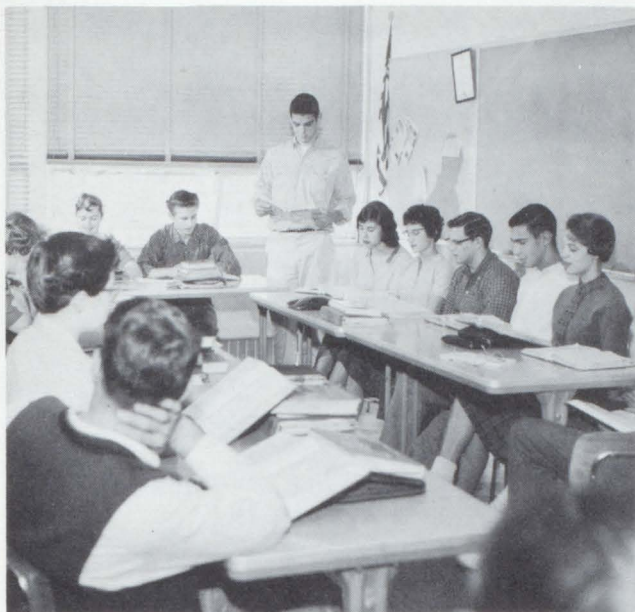

Robert Thompson, Linda Kirby, and Nancy Smith read aloud their Shakespeare in Miss Reid's English Literature class.

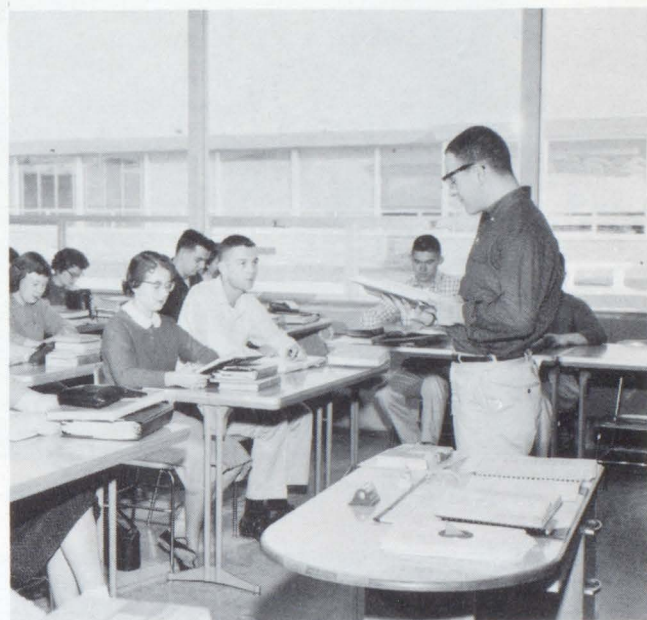

Tenth graders brush up on their grammar.

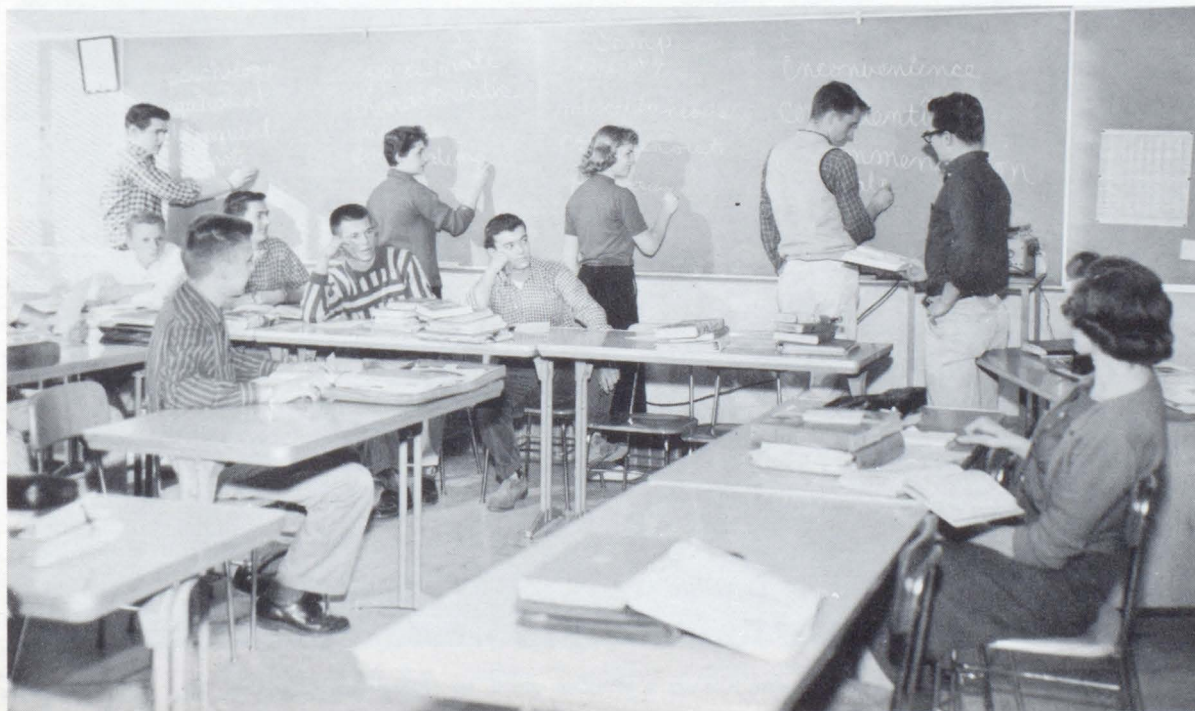

We Learn Our Poetry and Prose.

David Nicholson's reading from "Our Town" is enjoyed by Mrs. Houck's American Literature students.

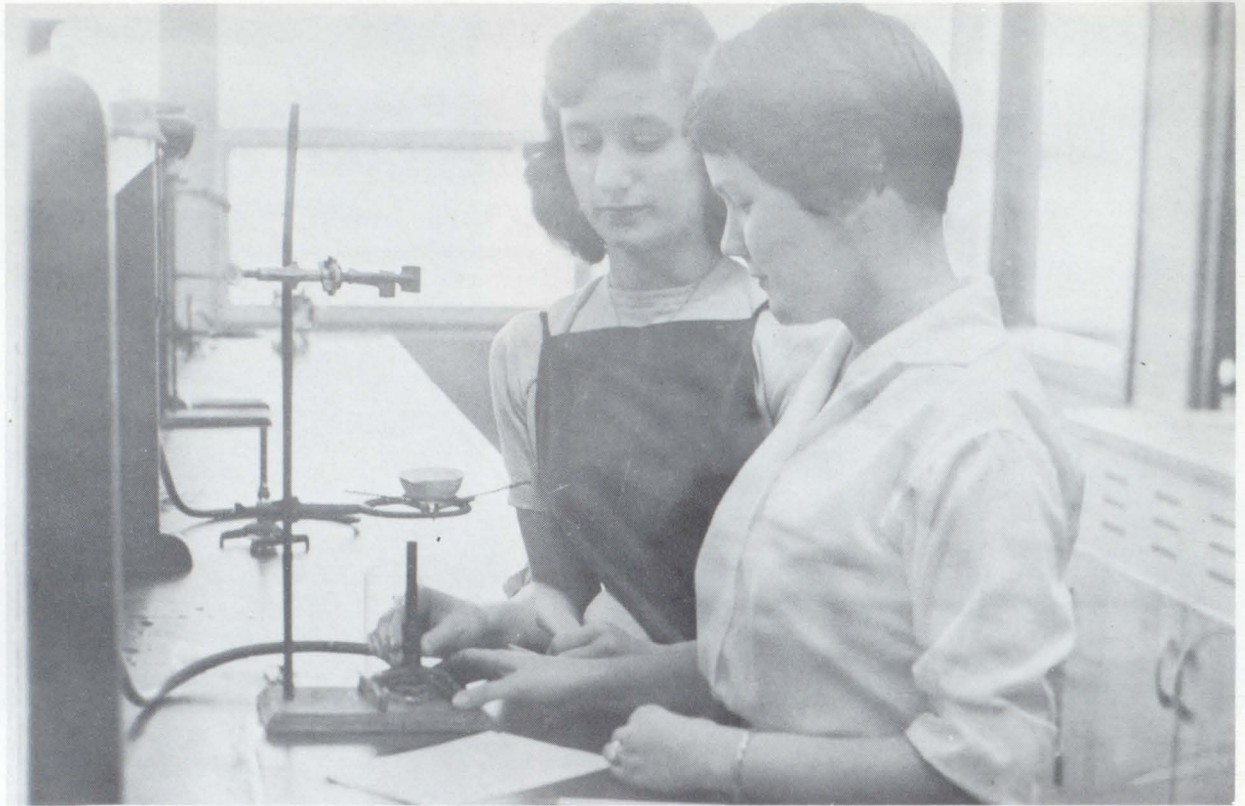

"And they all lived happily ever after," concludes James Goodrich in American Literature class.

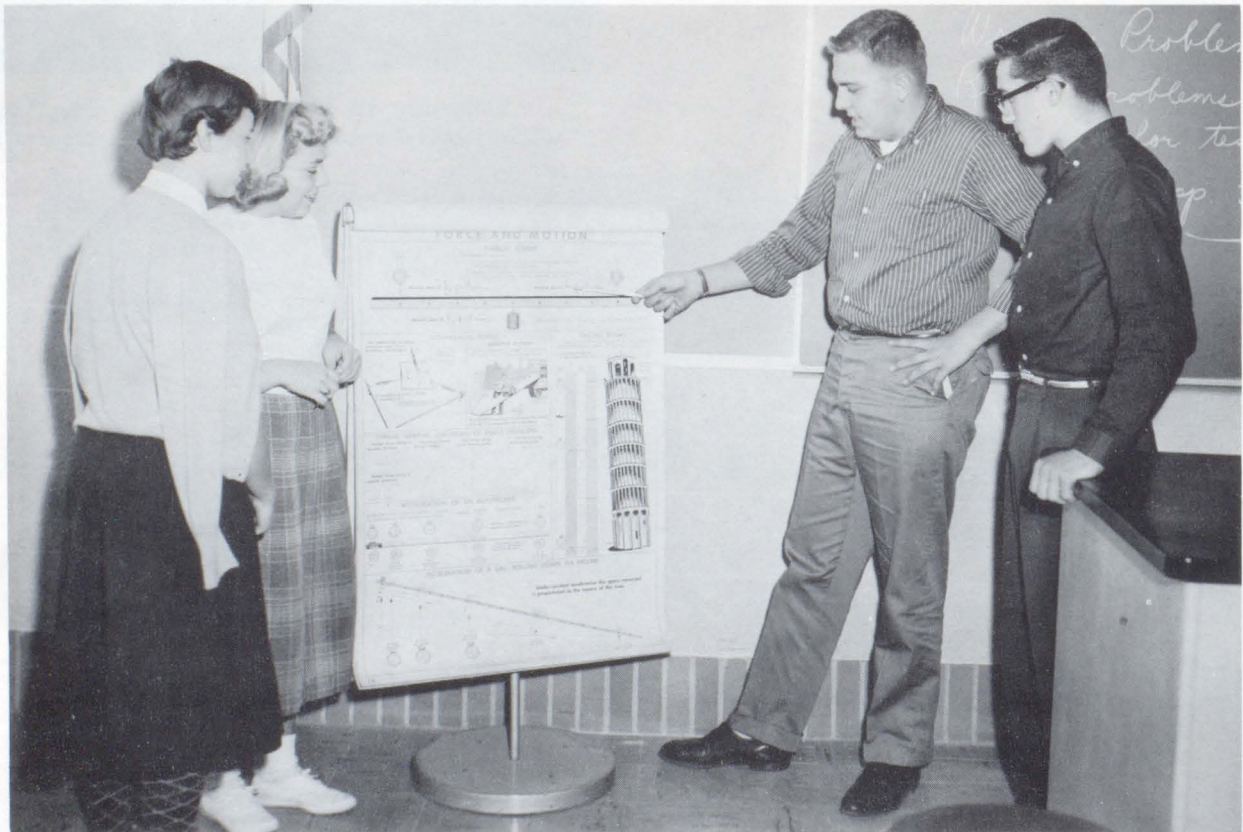

In Miss MacLaren's Senior Composition class, the students learn to spell those long, difficult words.

In Science We Learn The "Why" Of Things;

Jeanne Ulrich and Barbara Van Buskirk prepare to do a lab assignment in Mr. Rudd's Chemistry class.

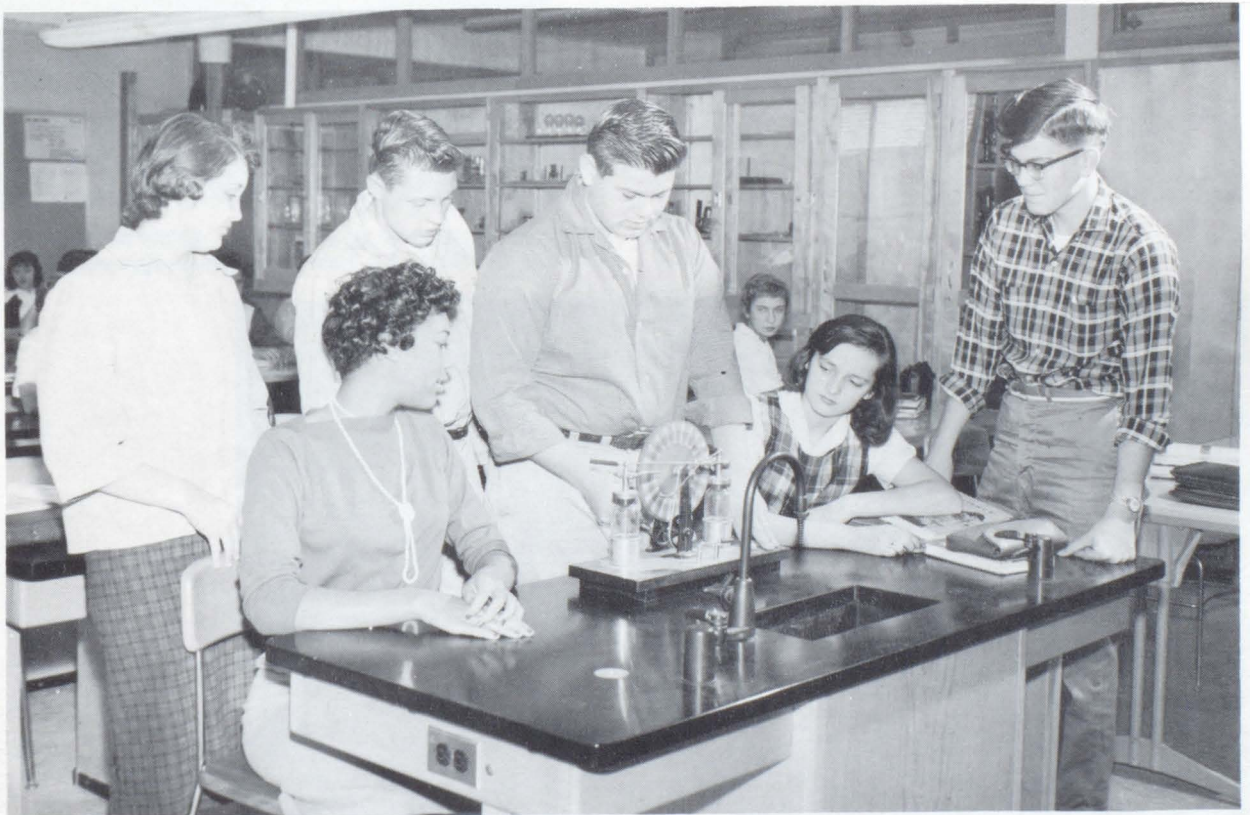

James Ort points out the important symbols on a physics chart to fellow members of Mr. Bond's Physics class.

Knowledge To Our Mind It Brings.

Miss Rowe's Biology students take a test on their knowledge of plant and animal life.

Students learn the wonders of science through class experiments.

If You Attend A Commercial Class,

Gail Gottsleben, Mary Gray, and Dorothy Herber strive for their best penmanship so that their bookkeeping records will be neat.

With an eye to the future, these industrious students practice the fundamentals of typewriting.

Production work plus accuracy is stressed in Miss Ruthe's advanced typing class.

With Business "Know How" You Will Pass.

Knowing how to operate various business machines in Mrs. Lindsay's classes prepares these students for a future job.

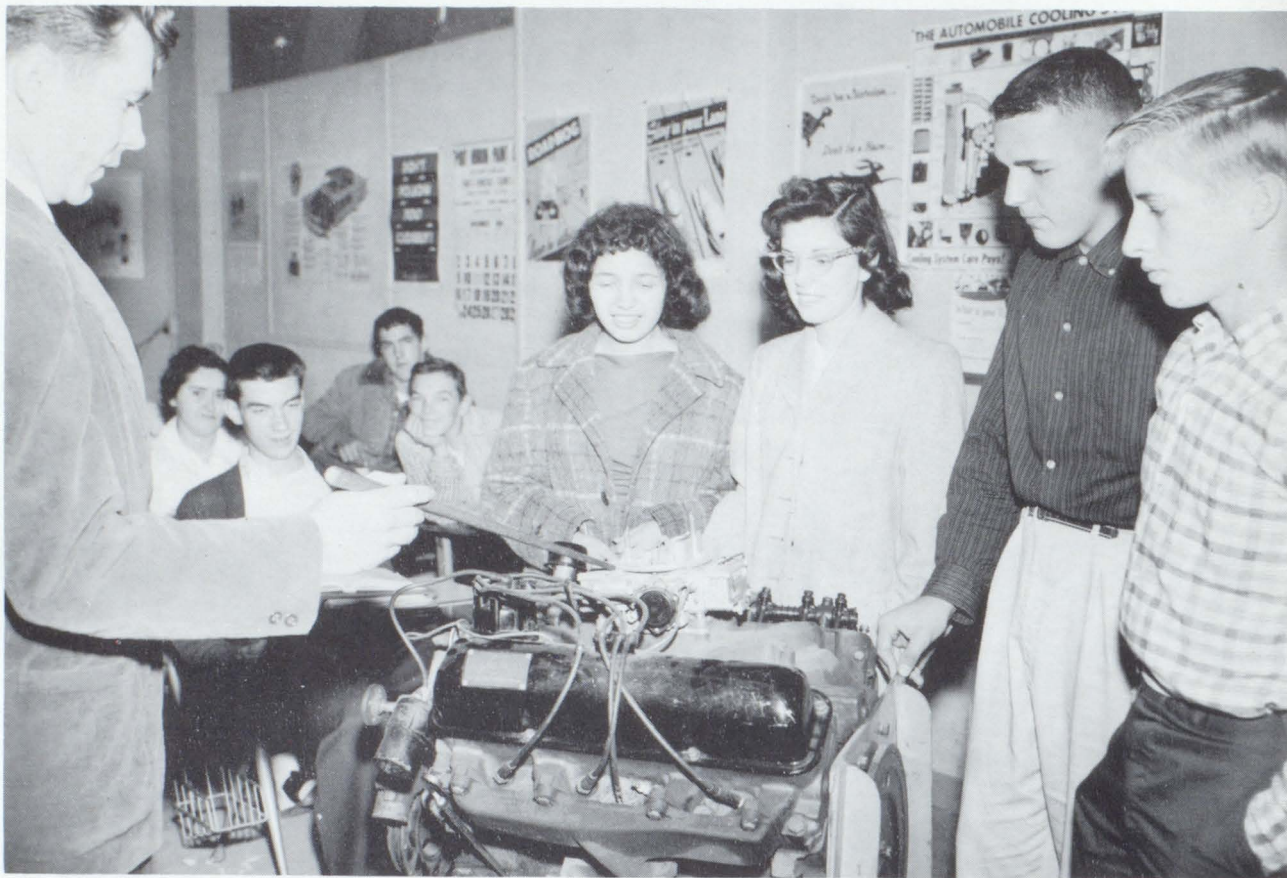

Shorthand students know that good posture aids them in taking dictation.

First year shorthand students spend much time spelling each outline until it can be read and written with accuracy.

Safety First Is The Rule In Our Drivers Training School.

Future drivers learn the fundamentals of engines in Mr. Lighter's drivers education class.

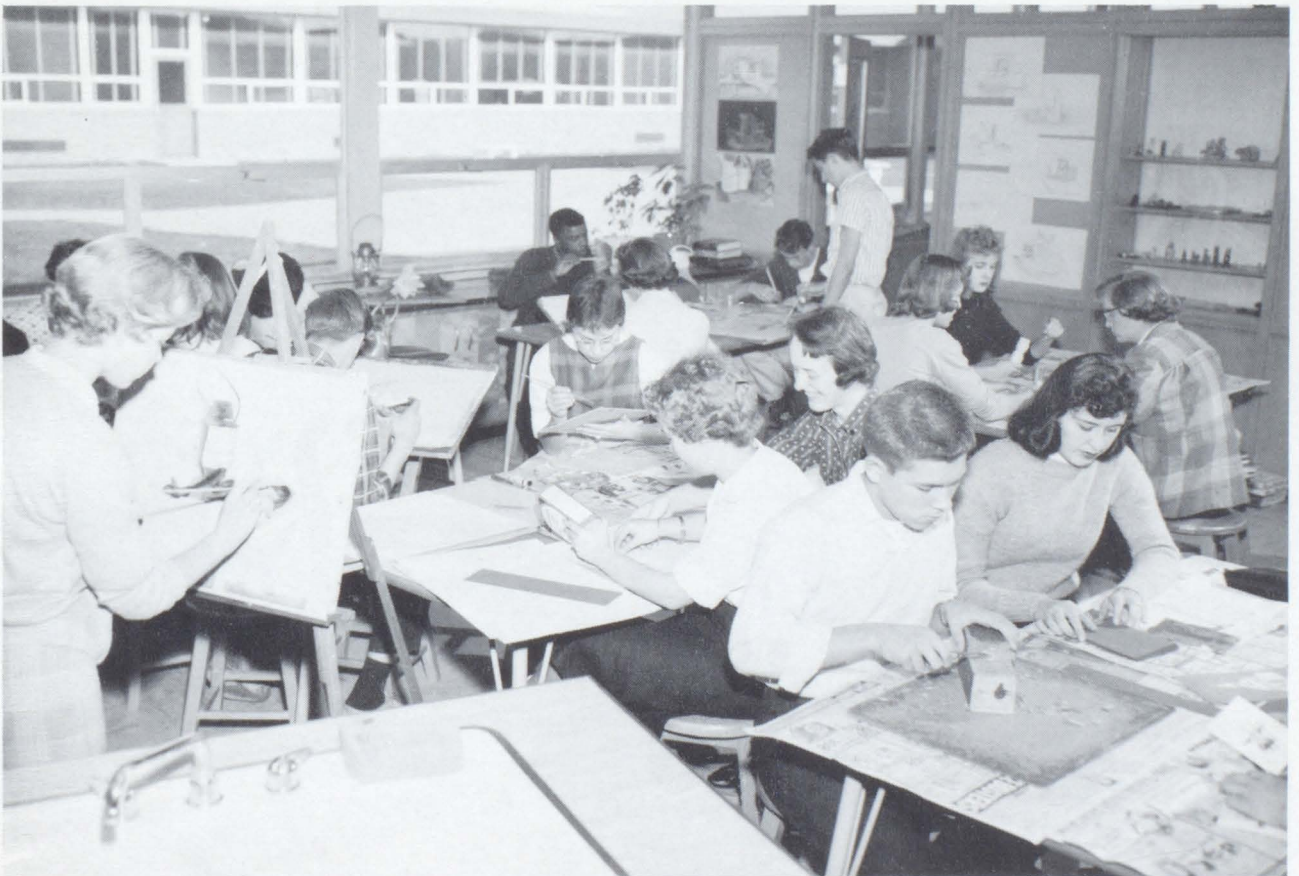

No wonder Mr. Thomas was so careful about his instructions. Those were BRAND NEW CARS!

Artists With the Brush and Clay Produce Art Treasures Every Day.

Turning lumps of clay into finished pieces of pottery was one of the projects for the first year art classes.

Students practice various artistic skills in Mrs. Winslow's advanced classes.

Health and Gym Go Right Along Keeping Students Fit and Strong.

Mr. Laughlin's sophomore boys' gym class do calisthenics in the early fall and spring.

Cooking and Sewing Are Two Useful Arts When Seeking The Way To Those Special Hearts.

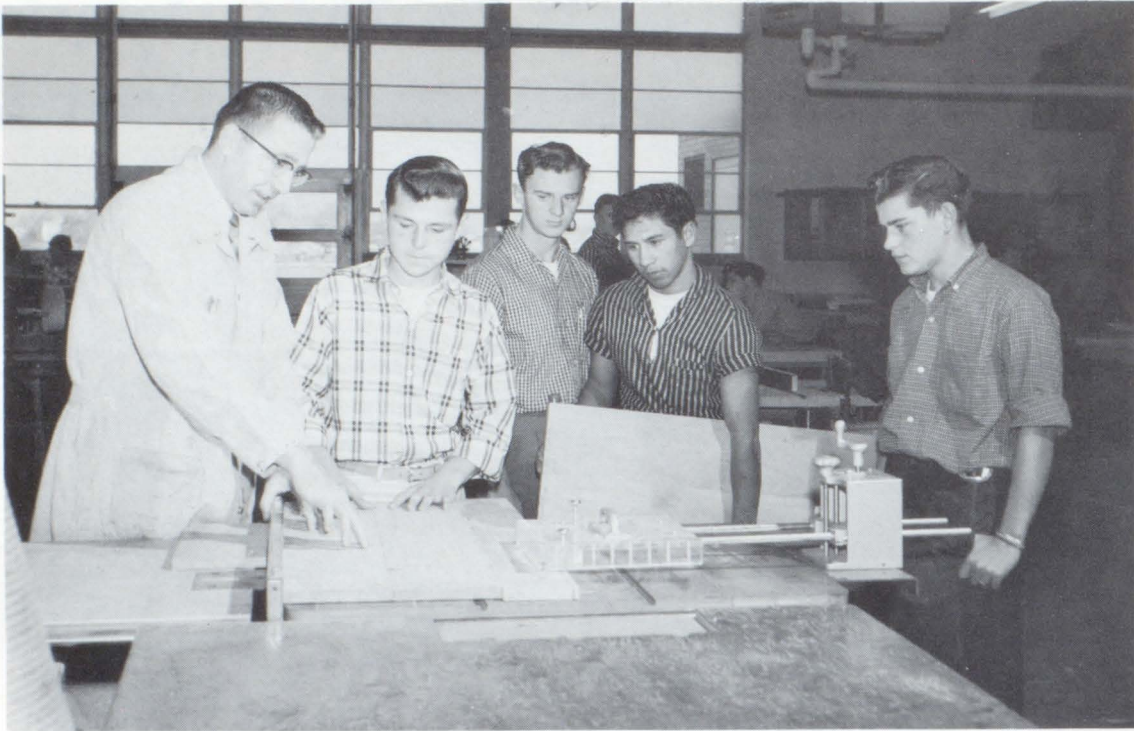

Miss Moore's clothing students demonstrate the four essential steps to a finished garment.

Mrs. Alexander's Home Economics class learn the techniques of future homemaking.

In Industrial Arts You'll Find

Mr. Runnels demonstrates the correct use of a table saw to members of his woodshop class.

Machine shop offers a fine opportunity to learn how to operate various machines.

The Use Of Tools Of Every Kind.

From pieces of leather to billfolds: Miss Kuhlenkamp's craft class learns this art.

Future architects spend many hours planning and working on their drawings.

For Those Who Work and Go To School,

The cheerful voice of Janet Wilson greets many callers at Port Huron High School.

Betty Sinclair, Port Huron School of Beauty Culture, practices her art on a fellow student, Joyce Jamison.

Co-op student Joyce Best, at Schlee-McIntosh and Simpson, works with Miss Monteith, a former Port Huron High School student.

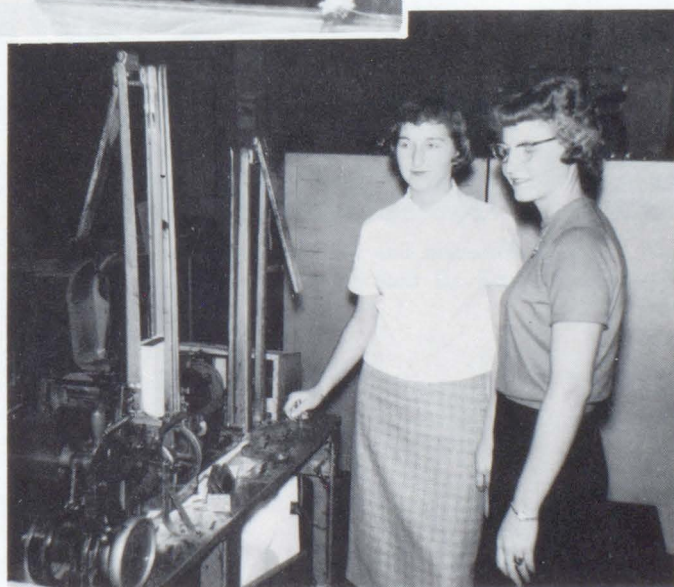

Co-op Is Their Golden Rule.

Mr. Hall knows that Gloria Hepting's bright smile has helped to win many customers at Woolworth's.

Sperry's stock boy Don Maynard, carefully follows the instructions of Mr. Garrettson.

Co-op . . .

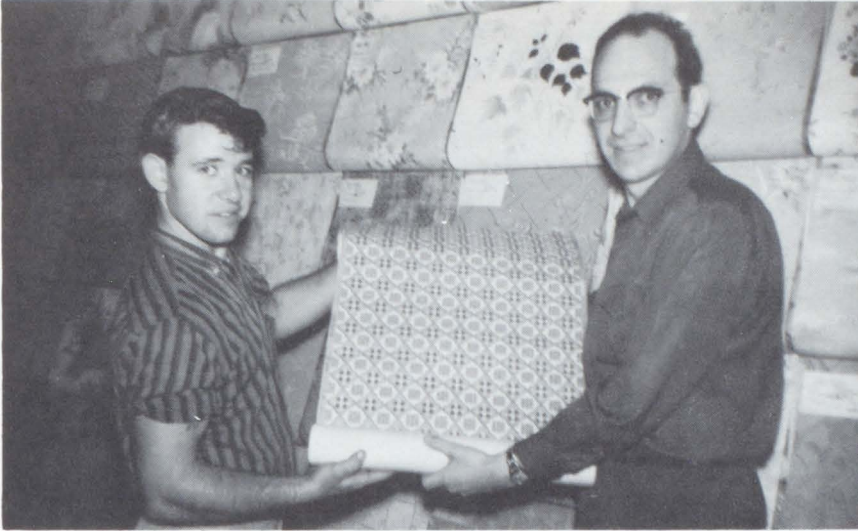

Another co-op student, Addie Akridge, is employed by Kresge's.

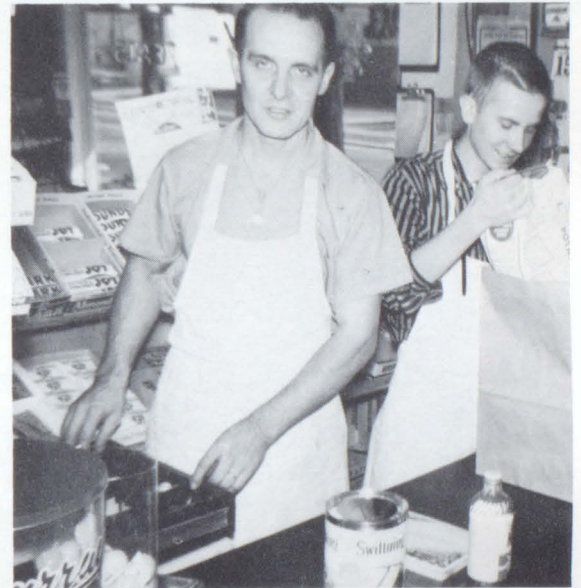

M. R. Peterson has to have strong will power working around all that good food at Kresge's.

When you reach for that bottle of shaving lotion or hair spray at Barnet's, probably Charles Stalker placed it there.

Edward Shank and Mr. Stone admire the new wallpaper pattern at Dave's.

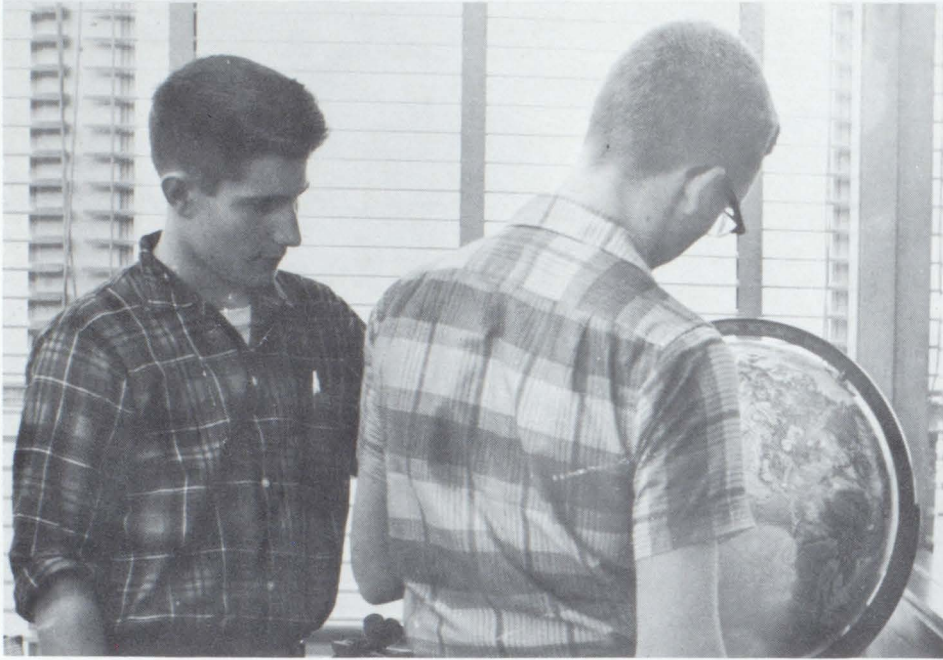

"Breakable things on top," Mr. Albert reminds Bernard Wolf who works at Albert's Market.

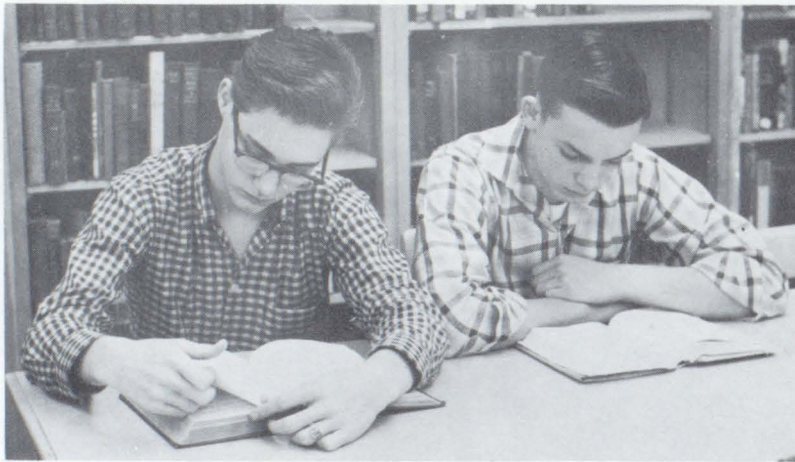

Mr. Roth supervises the work done by William Hopkins, who is employed by Roth's Dairy.

From the Library We May Acquire Books That Instruct, Amuse, and Inspire.

"I wonder if it's in South America?" asks Charles Rowe, as he searches the library globe for a geographical location.

Those five extra minutes of noon-hour study are helpful.

Nancy Streeter, assisted by Miss Jessop, makes her selection for another book report.

In Study Hall Is Where We Cram For A Lesson, Or Exam.

An important school hour for every student is his preparation period or study hall. It proves very useful to students for completing their outside assignments. Approximately four hundred students are scheduled in each of the four main study hall periods.

... Wrestling

For the three years that Coach Charles Dixon has been wrestling coach he has helped to raise the team from a mediocre one to a squad of state-wide prominence. His careful planning and building assures P.H.S. of a top notch wrestling team in the years to come. The good work is shown by the 9-2 record compiled this year.

These three grapplers, David Chester, John Zauner, and John Barden, proved to be the backbone of the wrestling team this year. Undefeated in regular season competition, each brought home the regional championship in his respective weight division. The Norm Cunningham award for the most valuable wrestler went to David Chester who brought Port Huron its first state championship in the history of the sport.

No Matter How Your Interests Rate,

FUTURE TEACHERS' CLUB

The Future Teachers' Club, under the direction of Miss Kean, combined useful learning projects with fun, as they learned of the responsibilities of today's teachers. They also baby-sat at election booths, sponsored a Favorite Teachers' Tea, and spent some time observing classes at the Roosevelt School.

RADIO CLUB

As one of the activities of the Radio Club, members took trips to amateur radio stations to add to their knowledge. Individual members of the club make their own radio sets and enjoy the opportunity of talking with other "hams" all over the world. They explore the exciting, strange world of electricity and communication.

Sitting: Ronald Roth, Michael Sari, James Schlee, Joseph Marsh, and Gary Langolf; Standing: Gary Mumford, Fred Postill, Dennis Harmer, Marshall Draper, George Sloat, and Lewis Myron.

There's a Club That's up to Date.

PEP CLUB

Judith Welch, Jill Stewart, Miss Warren, Janet Kresin, Arlene Tanton, Margaret Marker, Mary Jo Horn, Sherry Geoffroy, Barbara Spring, Deanna McNamara, Barbara Potter, and Linda Garrow.

Cheering our teams on to victory was the P.H. Pep Club, always willing to boost up the spirits of the team and their fellow students. It isn't any wonder that our teams came through with flying colors to take the E.M.L. Championships in football, basketball, and wrestling this year.

MU ALPHA THETA

The members of Mu Alpha Theta, better known as the Math Club, have been busy this school year with many activities besides maintaining their B plus averages in math. Meetings were held on the first Tuesday of each month and the main business on most of the agendas was actual work on the computer and its cabinet. They also sponsored a very successful dance after one of P.H.H.S.'s big games.

Standing: Miss Leonard, Miss Neil, Max Warsinski, Frank Shepherd, James Schlee, Rex Hartson, Joseph Marsh, John Zauner, and Kenneth Melbourne. Sitting: Leslie Henry, Miss Meehan, Jill Stewart, Adrien Chandler, Betsy Koshnick, and Nelson Armstrong.

CHRISTMAS TEA

Mr. Harrison, Miss MacLaren, Mr. Phillips, and Mr. Bundy have a pleasant chat at the Annual Christmas Tea.

ELECTION BOARD

The election board swings into full action as the ballots fill the boxes. Seated are: Steven Kelly, Sharon Clumfoot, Barbara Friley, Walter Ballard, Katherine Holth, Dennis Parker, and Allen Stevens.

Our "Lighthouse" Is Certainly Grand. It

Blanche Smith checks LIGHTHOUSE ad copy with a local merchant.

In order to better serve the students of Port Huron High School and the community, the editors believe that it is the obligation of the Lighthouse to:

1. Present all news fairly and accurately.
2. Keep readers always in mind.
3. Express the opinions of the staff and the students through editorials and letters.
4. Encourage original student literary efforts.
5. Support worthwhile projects and activities.
6. Observe good journalism practices.
7. Give the staff opportunities for experience both in business and journalism.

Special Events

The Floats and Cars Were Glorious.

Student Council members Gary Laughlin, Katherine Holth, and Thomas Hess worked with Miss Muhlitner in planning the homecoming activities which the Student Council sponsors.

There are many exciting days in the life of a student in Port Huron High, but one of the most exciting days by far was the annual Homecoming. This year was no exception.

Even though it rained, the spirits of the students were not dampened as they joined in the festivities of the day. Gaily decorated cars soon began the long parade downtown and back to the waiting judges.

Juniors demonstrated their artistic ability with their class float and took second prize in the contest.

The Big Reds Were Victorious.

The Seniors took top honors by displaying their "crown" which was the result of a lot of hard work.

At kick off time, the stadium was filled with students cheering for victory. The Big Reds came on the field and a deafening roar came from the stands. Touchdown after touchdown, our team marched on to victory.

The whole fun-filled day was a huge success and will remain in the memories of the students for many years to come.

One of the many nicely decorated cars in the homecoming parade was entered by Senior Thomas Saunby.

At Halftime We Crowned Our Queen;

After crowning our lovely homecoming queen, Linda Henry, Student Council President, Gerald Edson, adorned her with the traditional royal robe. Douglas Koch, who was crownbearer, looked on approvingly.

A bouquet of yellow roses and a kiss from Gerald Edson completed the crowning of Queen Linda Henry during halftime ceremonies of the homecoming game. Janet Wilson and attendants, Douglas Koch and Thomas Laughlin, observed the proceedings.

Smiling excitedly, Linda Henry and her court were escorted off the field by Gerald Edson and Principal Morton J. Tomlinson after the coronation.

Which princess would turn out to be the queen and reign at the Coronation Ball? This was the thought of every Port Huron High School student at sometime during the Homecoming Events.

Two representatives from each class, dressed in formal attire, rode around the stadium in beautiful convertible cars and then ascended to the platform where the winner would be announced.

At The Dance She Reigned Supreme.

Our Homecoming Queen, Linda Henry.

Members of her court: Juniors, Francis Culp and Susan Boerre; Sophomores, Gloria Thompson and Rebecca Peterson; and Senior, Janet Wilson.

A great cheer was heard from the student body as Miss Linda Henry was crowned our homecoming queen of 1958 and received the crown and customary kiss.

The Coronation Ball followed the game and the queen's reign began with her first dance with Student Council President, Gerald Edson.

Queen Linda Henry and her escort, David Nicholson, Francis Culp, Rebecca Peterson and her date Henry Ketels joined in one of the dances of the evening.

A Week Of Fun and Education --

There is nothing like a good old-fashioned community sing.

These constructive seniors showed the spaciousness of the car.

One of the many sights not soon forgotten by the group.

This year, thirty-one lucky seniors took the annual New York - Washington trip and had one week of educational enjoyment from beginning to end.

Keeping to a schedule, with little room to add a minute, the students viewed monuments of our American heritage, departments of our present governmental system, and the fascinating New York City.

Living together for one week the students gained responsibility, respect for one another, and memories that shall never be forgotten.

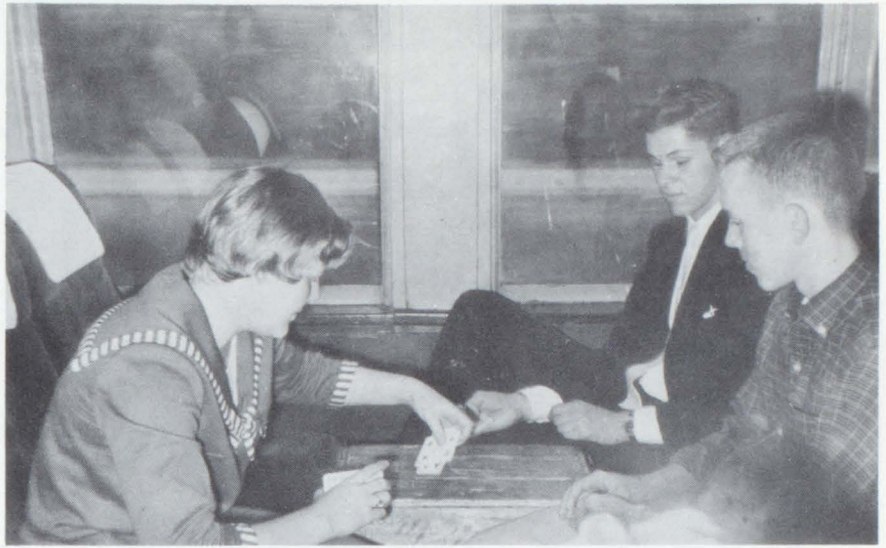

The officers were: Faculty Chairman, Mr. Wayne Claflin; President, Marilyn Goldman; Vice-President, Robert Koch; Secretaries, Marion Meno and Ardis Brooks; and Treasurers, Anita Goldstein and Mary Nell Hill.

Dazed with weary eyes, the travelers left their glorious surroundings to once more face reality.

We Saw The Sights Of Our Great Nation.

One of the main attractions for the group was the Statue of Liberty.

Ardis Brooks, Harold Muir, and Ronald Messenger took time out for relaxation with a card game after a tiring day.

Everyone joined in a rousing cheer for Port Huron High.

The Washington monument was one of the many impressive buildings visited by the travelers.

After a hectic day, Mr. and Mrs. Claflin managed a big smile.

The Effort and Acting

Showed Time Well Spent

Enthusiastic P.H.S. students await their turn to try out for interesting parts in this year's All School Play.

"The People versus Maxine Lowe," by Luella E. McMahon, was the All-School Play presentation this year. After numerous meetings and rehearsals, the play was presented in the student center on March 20, and 21. The play was under the direction of Mr. John Dean.

Under Mr. Dean's observation, Stephen Bankson, Susan Seibert, and Gregory Bush read various parts of the play at one of the tryouts.

For the All School Play

Was a Successful Event.

It was one of the most serious plays ever presented at Port Huron High School, and it contained a combination of suspense, drama, action, and humor. Everyone considered it a huge success.

As Mr. Dean gives some helpful tips, John Barcume, Stephen Bankson, Larry Smith, Mary Jo Hallead, and Shirley (Chip) Bankson run through the courtroom procedure in one of the scenes of the play

"Peanuts for Polio" Was Their Shout

Each year the Girls' Athletic Associations of Port Huron sponsor the "Peanuts for Polio Campaign" for the March of Dimes. Girls representing Port Huron High School, St. Stephen's High School, Washington Junior High School, and Garfield Junior High School give their time and effort for this worthy cause.

As the Girls With Their Canisters All Turned Out.

This year as always, in spite of freezing weather, the girls of Port Huron High School gave their all as they stood on their delegated corners situated throughout the city. Everyone around heard the cheerful cries of "Peanuts for Polio! Join the March of Dimes!"

Sayonara Serenade, Juniors' Social Whirl,

Cheer up, gang! The fire chief has okayed the ceiling!

Almost done! Nelson Armstrong and Herbert Winter draped the final rows of fringe to the illusion ceiling.

Tired but happy, Donna Dunsmore and Rodney Downing took a break from dancing to pose beneath the Shinto Shrine.

Take a beautiful April night, a Japanese setting with pastel shades, and dancers in their formal attire; and you had one of the best Junior Proms Port Huron High School had ever seen. With much pride, the class of '59' presented its J-Hop, "Sayonara Serenade," on April 18, 1958. Overnight, the gymnasium was changed into a beautiful Japanese atmosphere, with ornaments on the walls and ceiling to add to the beauty.

The decoration committee did the complete setting. Mary Lincoln and Dennis Parker were given special awards for their outstanding work. Cakes, with pastel frostings, and punch were served. The enchanting music of Bob Meade's orchestra served to complete an evening long to be remembered.

Operetta Students All En Masse

"PATIENCE"

This sprightly satire on the aesthetic craze of 1880's presents a "Fleshy Poet" and an "Idyllic Poet," Bunthorne and Grosvenor, who are rivals for the affections of the milkmaid, Patience. A train of languid ladies and their former flames, a Colonel, a Duke, and a Major, with a regiment of officers of the Dragoon Guards, complete the picture.

Patience, having been told that love must be absolutely unselfish, has to reject the perfect Grosvenor (Archibald the All-Right) and accept the very imperfect Bunthorne. This defection of their idol drives the ladies back to their military lovers, but the reunion is soon broken up by the arrival of Grosvenor, to whom they promptly transfer their adoration.

"PATIENCE"

Later, the baffled Bunthorne, aided by the mature Lady Jane, concocts a scheme to get rid of the interloper by means of a terrible curse, which compels Grosvenor to give up his aestheticism and to become a quite commonplace young man.

The plan, however, records, as all the ladies now revert to ordinary attire, explaining that since Archibald the All-Right cannot possibly be All-Wrong, obviously aestheticism should be discarded. Patience discovering that her Archibald is no longer perfect, promptly falls into his arms, and Bunthorne, crushed, decides to wed Jane, his one remaining adorer. However, the Duke enters, declaring that since he is a very ordinary man, it is only fair for him to choose a lady who is distinctly plain, such as Jane, who joyfully accepts him, so that "Nobody is Bunthorne's Bride!"

*" 'Til goal Is Reached We'll Never Stop."
So on We Marched Right To the Top.*

Donald Haines, Thomas Barrett, and Harlan Blomquist were three of the top winners who helped to put the magazine sales "over the top." Harlan was high salesman and recipient of the portable television set.

Surprised winner of the treasure chest, Susan Boerre receives her $25 prize from co-chairman Thomas Hess.

Much work and enthusiasm went into this year's magazine sale campaign. Co-chairmen of the sale were Thomas Hess and Marion Johnston who worked with various Student Council committees to reach the goal of $10,000.

Everyone's efforts proved a success as we reached our goal. Excitement filled the air as the prizes were given out in the magazine assembly. There were fifteen top prizes, including a portable T.V. set, U. S. savings bond, and a Hi-Fi record player, and many smaller cash prizes.

The profit which we received from the sale will be used to purchase additional items for our school.

We're Proud of These Students, One and All For Their Contributions Both Large and Small.

Marion Johnston was selected by her fellow classmates and members of the faculty as the D.A.R. Good Citizen from Port Huron High School.

The seniors chose, by voting three girls who possess to a high degree the qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. The faculty then selected one of the three to be the Port Huron High School Good Citizen.

This year's winner of the Betty Crocker Award was Betsy Koshnick.

Every year General Mills sponsors a search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow. Its two main purposes are: First, to find, through a knowledge and aptitude test, the girl to receive a scholarship for advanced study; second, to provide instructional aids for pupils and teachers for added educational experiences.

In This Group Are Found the Best

Leslie Henry and James Schlee were two of the students who attended Port Huron Junior College for additional classes this past year. David McMorran, not present when the picture was taken, also attended.

This past year for the first time students who have excelled in such subjects as chemistry and Spanish received opportunities to gain advanced study in these fields. These students were given the privilege of attending Port Huron Junior College for an hour or so each day to take college courses in these subjects for which they will receive college credits.

Of Those Who Take the Scholarship Test.

The National Merit Scholarship Program is a nationwide search for students who demonstrate extraordinary ability to benefit from a college education. Four-year college scholarships are awarded the winners, who are selected on the basis of aptitude for college work, secondary school achievement, character, and qualities of leadership.

This year the test was given on April 28, and a total of 118 students of the Junior class participated.

James Schlee scored high in the National Merit year, and so was entitled to enter in nationwide competition. Mary Jill Stewart, Ellen Little, and Gerald Edson (not pictured) received honorable mention.

ALMA MATER

Let us join our hearts together
As we pledge our loyalty,
And we'll look to Alma Mater
For hopes to cherish endlessly.

In our hearts that are united
Are thoughts that never die,
We will keep in memory always
This our own Port Huron High.

Though the years ahead may number
More than those we've left behind,
Still the dreams will always linger
In our hearts, our lives, and our minds.

And may always we endeavor
To make achievements great,
So Port Huron may be proud
Of all those who graduate.

Come on and--Join our song for Port Huron High,
The best school in this land
Grand and glorious we'll be victorious,
The Red and White shall stand.
Oh, she's the stronghold of our community,
She stands for all that's Right!
So fight, fight, fight for Alma Mater
And show them with our might.

CHORUS:

Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
On to victory.
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Shall our watchword be.

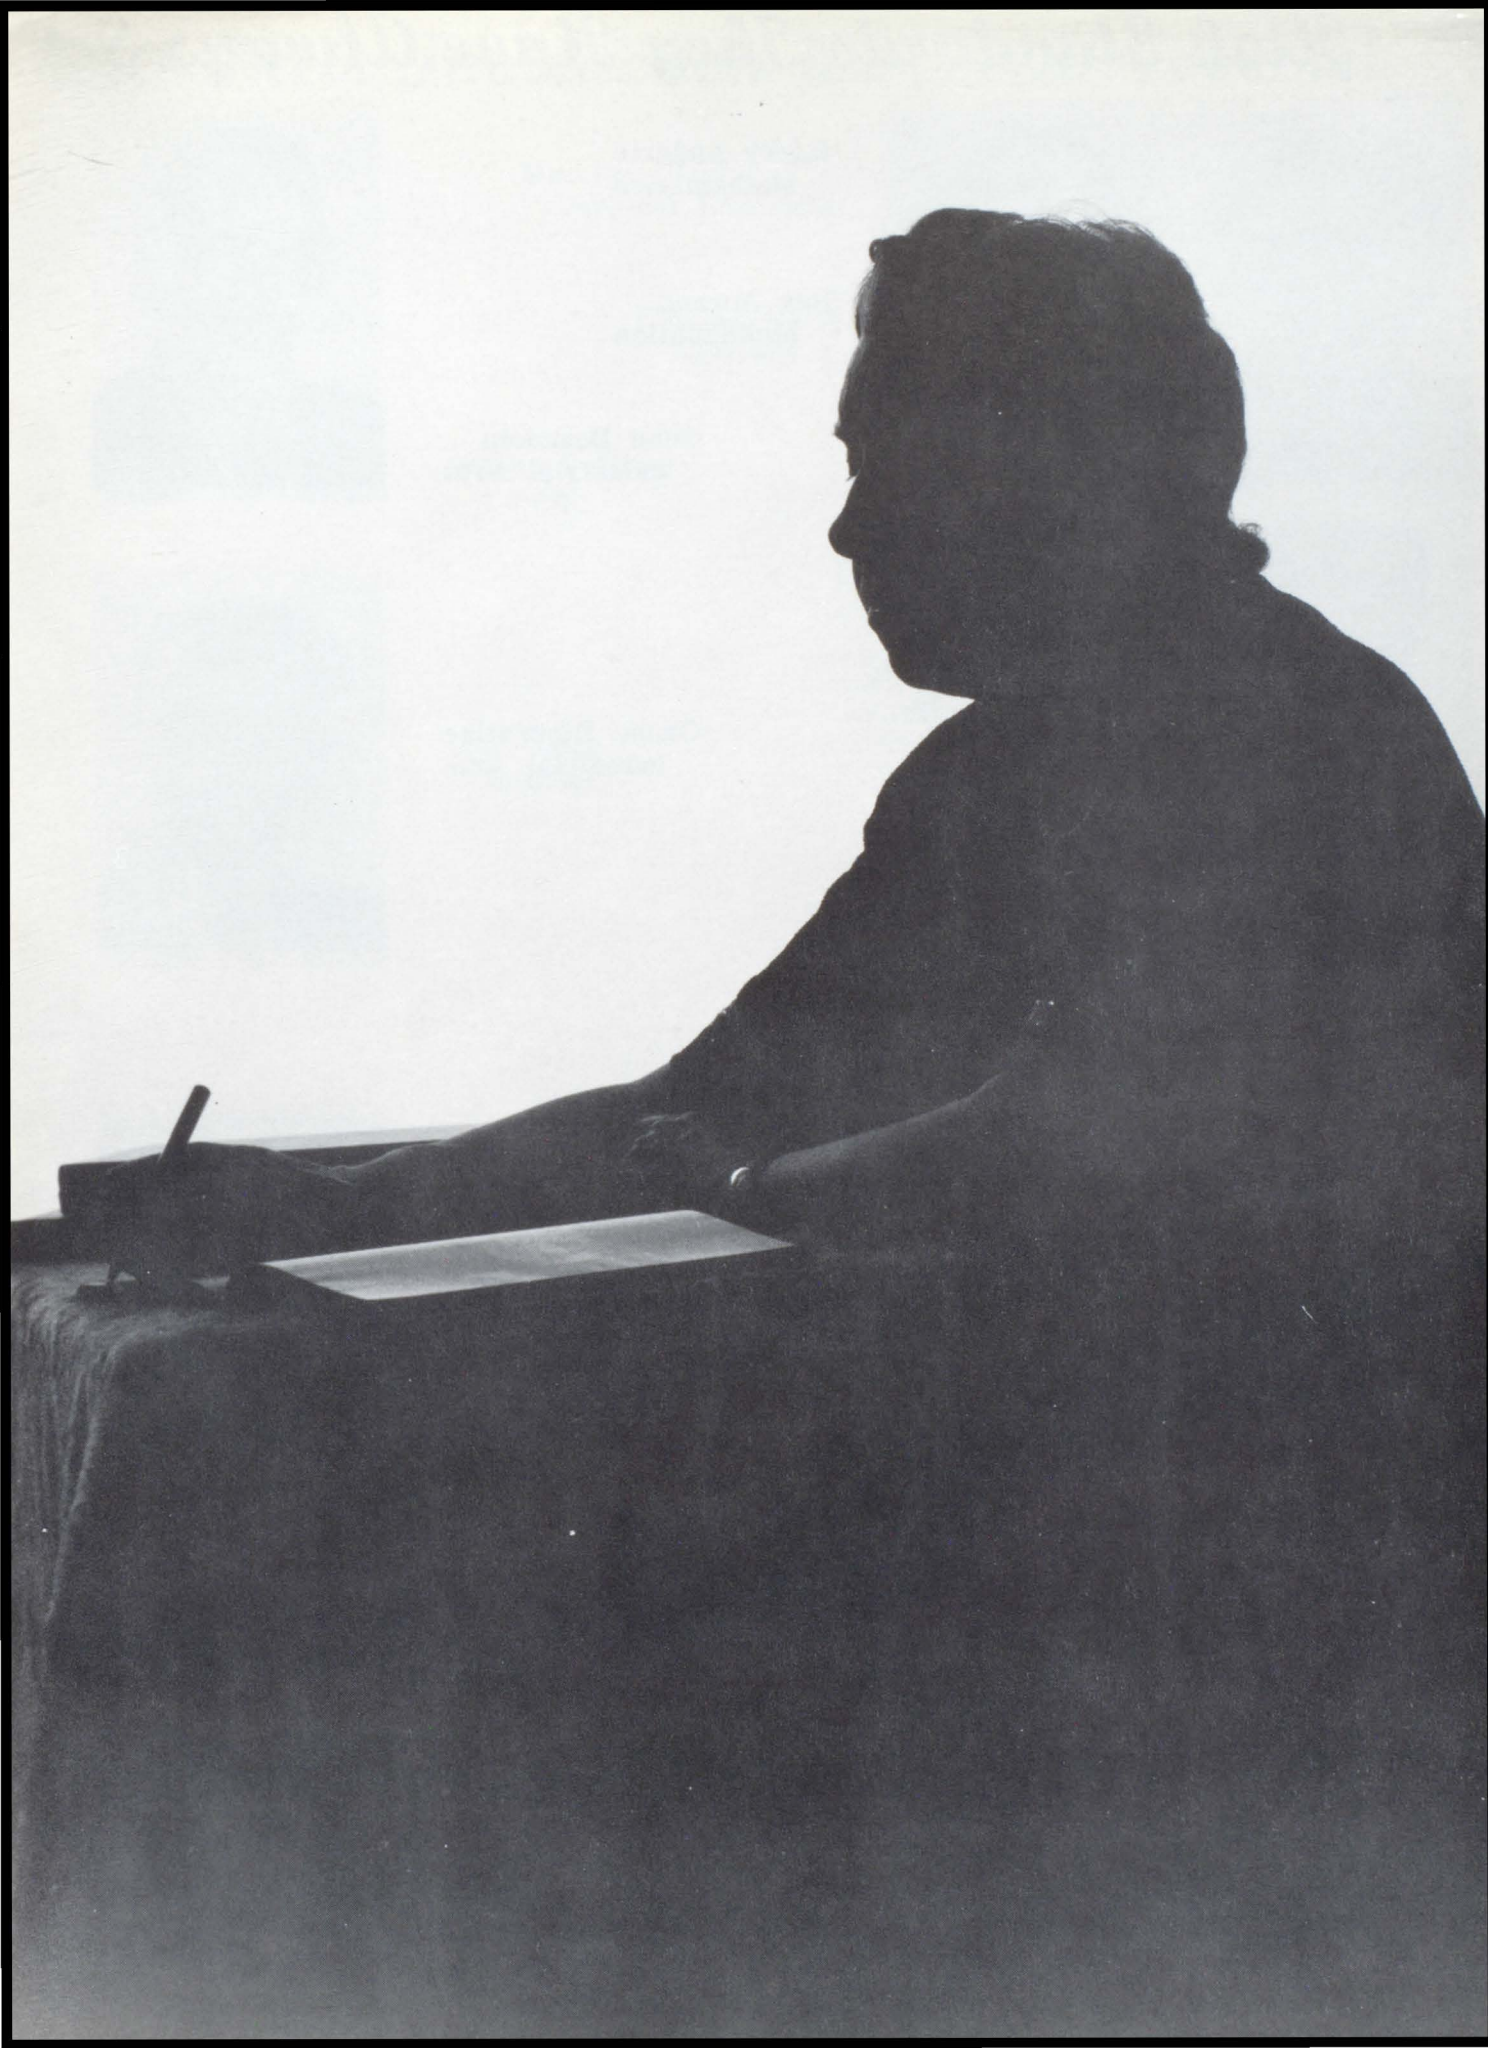

So, come on join our song for Port Huron High,
Champions now are we!
So fight, fight, fight for Alma Mater
And sing for victory!

Sophomore Class Officers William Oliver, Roger Jeanson, Gayle Kovatch, and Ann McNally meet in the Student Lounge.

Students, teachers, and the custodial staff were saddened to learn of the sudden and serious illness of Mrs. Ivy Cronan last January.

We miss her friendly personality, her pleasant smile, and her thoughtfulness - With a cheerful disposition, she happily did her work.

Mrs. Cronan attends Christmas party with her co-workers, Frank McPherson, Glenn Pedersen, Marshall Grant and Joseph Perukel.
